

Music

- Mayan themed music lessons (colour, costume and composition)
- Producing a creative response to Mayan music.

Stunning Starts & Fantastic Finishes

- Start – Make Mayan Hot Chocolate
- End – Hold a Mayan assembly.

Happy, Healthy Me

- Changes
- Loss
- Transitions in life
- 'Journey in Love'

Computing

- Text adventures – Purple Mash unit 6.5
- Research John Lloyd Stephens and Frederick Catherwood.

The Lost World

Year 6 Summer term 2

History

- The Mayan Civilisation (location, culture, numerical system, sports, gods, etc).
- Make links between past societies e.g religion.
- Primary and secondary sources.
- Facts and opinions.
- Investigate own lines of enquiry.
- Order events chronologically on a timeline.
- Identify, compare and contrast changes across different time periods.

Art / DT

- Make Mayan masks using Papier Mache.
- Mayan circle mural.
- Complete Julian Coche painting
- Tribal pattern printing.
- Julian Coche study.
- Make a Mayan sculpture using clay
- Study the cultural and historical setting of the artist.
- Compare work from the artists studied and state a preference, giving reasons which involve the use of artistic vocabulary.

Science

- Evolution and Inheritance
 - Recognise that living things produce offspring.
 - Adaptation.
 - Evolution over time
 - Fossils and how they teach us about the past
- Working Scientifically

Literacy

- Instructions (How to make Mayan Hot Chocolate)
- Adventure story (based on Middleworld)
- Explanation text (based on the Chocolate Tree)
- Newspaper report (Hero Twins)

Books: The Chocolate Tree
The Hero Twins
Middleworld: 1 (J&P Voelkel)